

PURITAN REFORMED

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Puritan Research Center at PRTS supports and encourages thoughtful discussions that deal with facets of Puritanism and Continental (Post) Reformation thought, including historic trajectories and early modern context, from a variety of perspectives. Doctoral students and faculty will present their findings of original research in a colloquium.

PURITAN RESEARCH CENTER

The Puritan Research Center at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary is the culmination of a dream that is decades old and offers exciting possibilities for promoting the appreciation of Reformed and Puritan primary source literature around the world. The Center's aim is to assemble the largest possible collection of resources on the Puritans, including original manuscripts, antiquarian books (mostly from the seventeenth century) and modern reprints of Puritan writings, as well as secondary source materials on the Puritans such as books, dissertations, and articles.
